Lesson for July 4

ISRAEL ENSLAVED IN EGYPT

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 1:1-14.
GOLDEN TEXT—The Lord will not cast off His people.—Ps. 94:14.
PRIMARY TOPIC—A Wicked King Is Cruel to God's People.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Israelites Become Slaves.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Israel Oppressed by a Despotic King.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Modern Forms of Oppression.

1. The Increase of the Chosen Seed (vv. 1-7).

This "miraculous increase" seems only to have begun after the death of Joseph and the passing of his generation. After this Israel quickly grew into a nation. This amazing increase "as expressed as is usual in Hebrew by a climax of verbs: where actual fact taken from the vegetable world in which the increase varies from the multiple to several hundred-fold; increased (spawmed)—swarmed) is borrowed from the busy tribes in which the rate of increase rises to many myriads; multiply is a general word referring to number; and waxed exceedingly mightily is a metaphor attending to the strength which numbers confer, composed of verb and adverb repeated and therefore well adapted to complete the climax."—Murphy. This increase can be accounted for by admitting the hand of the Almighty to be in it.

II. A New Dynasty Appears (vv. 8-10).

Joseph's elevation as prime minister in Egypt was during the reign of the Hyksos kings. Being of Semitic origin they were hostile to the Hebrews, but when "there arose up a new king which knew not Joseph" (v. 8) their troubles began. This affords a striking illustration of God's providence in history. His purposes include the means to carry them out. The amazing growth of the Israelites effected the envy and fear of the king (vv. 9-10). Fear was twofold.

1. In case of war they might join the enemy and fight against them.

2. Lest they should remove from the land, thus cutting off a vital source of revenue and also exposing to danger the eastern border of the land.

III. Measures to Check the Growth of Israel (vv. 11-23).

These measures with their outcome expose the folly of world wisdom (I Ch. 3:19). If they could have eliminated God from the affairs of men their policy would have been a good one, but it proved to be altogether vain. The greatest mistake a man can ever make is to leave God out of his calculations. God had promised that His people should become mighty in power as well as great in numbers.

1. Placed under cruel taskmasters (vv. 11-14).

The first measure he adopted was to put Israel into cruel bondage by selecting men with heavy burdens. Cruel taskmasters were placed over them who forced them to labor in building treasure cities and all manner of service in the field. They exacted of them hard service, but this measure was ineffectual for "the more they afflicted them the more they multiplied and grew." This rapid growth resulted in more intense burdens being heaped upon them. The Egyptians went this far for evil of the Israelites, but God blessed it to their good.

2. The authorized treatment of the world (I Tim. 1:12; Heb. 12:6). Prosperity and adversity constitute God's teaching and discipline. While their burdens were heavy and their sufferings very intense, they had the consolation that it would not last forever. The presence of Joseph's dead body was a guarantee that they would one day be delivered. Though the Christian's burden may be heavy and his sufferings keen, he has the guarantee that they shall not last always.

3. The authorized murder of the world (I Tim. 1:12; Heb. 12:6). Prosperity and adversity constitute God's teaching and discipline. While their burdens were heavy and their sufferings very intense, they had the consolation that it would not last forever. The presence of Joseph's dead body was a guarantee that they would one day be delivered. Though the Christian's burden may be heavy and his sufferings keen, he has the guarantee that they shall not last always.

The presence of Joseph's dead body was a guarantee that they would one day be delivered. Though the Christian's burden may be heavy and his sufferings keen, he has the guarantee that they shall not last always.

42. The authorized murder of the world (I Tim. 1:12; Heb. 12:6). Prosperity and adversity constitute God's teaching and discipline. While their burdens were heavy and their sufferings very intense, they had the consolation that it would not last forever. The presence of Joseph's dead body was a guarantee that they would one day be delivered. Though the Christian's burden may be heavy and his sufferings keen, he has the guarantee that they shall not last always.

OLD TIME DANCES

PANPHLET DESCRIBES
POPULAR DANCES OF 1848
Dances of That Period Now Becoming Popular—Many in Number

The following descriptions of the dances in the "Ball Room Guide," a pamphlet published in 1855 and which contained a description of the most popular dances of that period. The pamphlet is owned by Will J. Dearborn of the Democrat Office at Laconia, N. H. As a result of a revival of old time dances and dances investigated by Henry Ford, it is interesting to know how the dances of the period of 1855 and later years were danced. This book so fully describes the dances that by reading, one may become acquainted with the method of dancing in that period.

We have endeavored to make the dances as clear as possible so that anyone who reads this cannot fail to understand the figures. The figures put down in this guide are danced in all the principal cities of New England, and are much admired. We hope it will meet with approval, if so, our aim is accomplished.

cook with Focused Heat. The intensely hot, clean blue gas flame goes straight to the bottom of the kettle. This means quick cooking in a cool kitchen.

The Florence burns kerosene the modern way, by first converting it into kerosene gas. It has no wicks to trim and requires no priming. To light the burner you merely touch a match to the asbestos "Kindler". The flame can be set for any intensity, and will not creep or smudge.

Florence Oil Ranges are made in five sizes. Easy to use, easy to clean, and a credit to any kitchen, they have won the enthusiastic endorsement of millions of women.
